

Thursday 6th June 2019
HEALTHCARE PROFESSION EDUCATION
RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Pursuing Excellence in Healthcare Education

We are pleased to announce that our Healthcare Profession Education Research conference this year will take place on the 6th June 2019. The conference is open to all in the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, bringing together individuals with an interest and responsibility in healthcare education.

GUEST SPEAKER

Karen is Professor of Medical Education at the University of Exeter. Her two main areas of responsibility at the University of Exeter are as Director of Postgraduate Education (PGT & CPD) for the College of Medicine & Health, involving education leadership of the portfolio of Masters programmes and short courses, and Co-Lead for the Centre for Research in Professional Learning, involving research leadership of projects involving healthcare education.

She is committed to supporting healthcare practitioners to engage in scholarship, and much of her work life is spent supporting postgraduate students and healthcare professionals to undertake research, scholarship or evaluation projects.

Her work has been recognised through various awards, such as Principal Fellow of the Higher Education Academy and National Teaching Fellow.

CONFERENCE DETAILS

THEME OF CONFERENCE: Scholarship and research:
Pursuit of excellence in health profession education

DATE: Thursday 6th June 2019

TIME: 08.30 – 14.00

VENUE: Canada Room/Council Chambers,
Lanyon Building

COST: Free

PRIZES FOR BEST PRESENTATIONS

KEEN TO ATTEND?

Secure a place by emailing Deborah.millar@qub.ac.uk by close of play on 23rd May 2019.

Please advise of any dietary requirements at time of booking.